MARCH IS: WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH

Philadelphia museums and attractions honor the many contributions to society made by both historical and modern-day women all month long.

BRANDYWINE
OF ART

The Brandywine River Museum of Art welcomes virtual visitors to peruse an online exhibit that explains century-old political cartoons, plays, posters, parades and fashion that formed the visual culture of the U.S. women's suffrage movement.

WINTOUR Scavenger Hunt

Fairmount Park
Scavenger Hunt

Now through March 19!

Get out and discover the hidden gems of one of Philly's best green spaces during its new WinTOUR Scavenger Hunt.

This free, all-ages and social-distancing-friendly scavenger hunt features five different routes, each with a theme: historic homes, public art, nature, water, and past & present.

Participants who complete the 80 missions before the last day of winter (March 19) win a membership to the Fairmount Park Conservancy, and fun weekly challenges are a great way to see a piece of the park for a chance to win themed prizes.
