Black Founders: The Forten Family of Philadelphia at the Museum of the American Revolution

Now through Sunday, November 26th

Museum of the American Revolution - 101 S. 3rd Street

This exhibition charts the life of James Forten, a free man of African descent who fought in the war for American independence in 1781, then returned to Philadelphia to become a successful businessman, philanthropist and stalwart abolitionist. Chronicle Forten's life and follow his family's 100-year story from the American Revolution through the lead up to the Civil War and women's suffrage movement.

Win (2) tickets to this exhibit!

Enter via the Tenant App from September 4th - 14th.

Winner will be announced on Friday Sept. 15th!
