Philadelphia Juneteenth Parade & Festival
Sunday June 22nd, kicks off at noon at South Concourse Drive (across from The Mann Center)

Juneteenth is the oldest nationally celebrated commemoration of the ending of slavery in the united states.

Over the past five years, the parade has grown to be the largest in the nation, drawing over 25,000 attendees to experience a culturally festive 1.5 mile long parade with over 2,000 participants and floats.

The annual celebration continues with a festival at the historic Malcolm X Park with over 250 vendors and a musical concert for the entire family to enjoy!
