

LifeStyle!

Philly Phacts

The Philadelphia Phillies played their first official National League game in April 1883. That's over a century of baseball woven into Philly history.

30 Day Sustainability Challenge! Go to the Tenant App to download your challenge board

Take small, practical steps toward more sustainable habits both in the office and at home. Each activity on the chart is worth 5 points, and participants can earn 10 bonus points every time they share their action on Instagram and tag @2LP_PHL. The winner will receive a sustainability-themed gift basket filled with eco-friendly goodies. Tied participants will be entered into a raffle to determine the winner.
